

Sachtleben GmbH

Karsten Falldorf, Dr. Georg Eschenburg

Medical Device Industry
Date founded: 1994

Exploring the therapeutic effects of low frequency ElectroMagnetic Fields beyond bone fracture healing. Targeting osteoporosis and other chronic diseases employing Research and Development competencies for product and services:

- Manufacturer of class IIa non-invasive, easy-to-use medical device, certified since 2000, preparing to fit the next generation device into a patient-centric digital health world.

Karsten Falldorf, Dr. Georg Eschenburg
Sachtleben GmbH

Martinistr. 64
20251 Hamburg

T: +49 - 40 - 806 096 100
E: falldorf@citresearch.de

- Guiding and empowering the patient journey utilizing smart markers, sensors and algorithms – collecting real world and clinical trial data
- Conducting and controlling preclinical cell experiments for solid data reproduction and disease translation discovery